

Julie Anna Potts

Member, Board of Directors
Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company

Julie Anna Potts is President and CEO of the North American Meat Institute, where she leads the implementation of all Institute programs and activities. She was elected to the Nationwide Board of Directors in 2021.

She is a trustee of The Pennsylvania State University and serves on the boards of Agriculture Future of America and the International Stockmen's Educational Foundation. Ms. Potts was appointed to the USDA's Agricultural Policy Advisory Committee in 2021.

An agriculture veteran, Ms. Potts previously served the American Farm Bureau Federation (AFBF) as Executive Vice President and Treasurer. She first joined AFBF in 2004, serving as General Counsel until 2009. In 2009, she was named Chief Counsel of the Senate Agriculture Committee, serving under then-Chairman Blanche Lincoln of Arkansas. Earlier in her career, Ms. Potts was an associate in the environmental law groups of the Washington, D.C., law firms Mayer Brown, LLP, and Sonnenschein, Nath & Rosenthal. She also clerked for U.S. Magistrate Judge John M. Facciola in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia from 1997-1998.

Ms. Potts earned her Bachelor of Arts in English at Bryn Mawr College and her law degree at The George Washington University Law School.

About Nationwide

Nationwide, a Fortune 100 company based in Columbus, Ohio, is one of the largest and strongest diversified insurance and financial services organizations in the United States. Nationwide is rated A+ by both A.M. Best and Standard & Poor's. An industry leader in driving customer-focused innovation, Nationwide provides a full range of insurance and financial services products including auto, business, homeowners, farm and life insurance; public and private sector retirement plans, annuities and mutual funds; excess & surplus, specialty and surety; pet, motorcycle and boat insurance. For more information, visit www.nationwide.com. Follow us on Facebook and Twitter.